GENERAL RULES FOR THE INTERNATIONAL FISEC GAMES

1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Article 1.1. Period

Each year FISEC is organising summer Games between 5th and 31th July for 15-17 years old girls and boys.

Article 1.2. Candidacy

1.2.1. The candidacy is addressed to the President of FISEC.

1.2.2. The Executive Board will examine the candidacies.

1.2.3. Before taking a decision the Executive Board will ask the president of CTI to organise a preliminary visit and to examine the propositions of the organizing committee, to develop these and adapt them if necessary.

The president of the CTI will present his report to the Executive Board (or General Assembly).

1.2.4. The organising country will be designated by the General Assembly, if possible two years in advance, based on a contract.

1.2.5. The final control of the Games is under responsibility of FISEC. FISEC delegates to the organising country to realise the Games, based on their different rules (statutes, general rules, technical rules and specifications by sport).

Article 1.3. Participation

1.3.1. Only federations, associations or groups affiliated to FISEC can participate in the FISEC-Games.

1.3.2. In particular circumstances countries not affiliated to FISEC can participate after invitation if they fulfill the conditions set by the General Assembly.

1.3.3. The organising country has to invite all FISEC-member countries. No acceding country can be refused.

Article 1.4. Participation fee

The participation fee, the FISEC-tax and the amount of the caution are fixed by the General Assembly.

1.4.1. Payments

The invoices for the different payments are established by the treasurer based on the definitive non nominative inscriptions (see article 3.5).

1.4.1.1. The latest 15th February the participating countries have to send their definitive non nominative inscriptions to the president and secretary of the CTI. Based on these inscriptions the treasurer will send an invoice of 500€/team (individual sports and team sports), to be paid in two weeks.

1.4.1.2. The latest the 30th March each participating country must pay 40% of the participation fee by banc transfer to the organising committee (COJFI), based on the definitive non nominative inscriptions.

1.4.1.3. The latest the 1st June each participating country must pay the FISEC-taxes and the caution by banc transfer to the FISEC treasurer. The caution will be restored after the General Assembly , eventually deducted with the costs caused by damage caused by the participant(s).

1.4.1.4. The latest the 1st June the balance 60% of payment of the participation fee (- 500€/team already paid) must be paid by banc transfer to the COJFI.

1.4.2. Sanctions are possible for delegations that come with less participants as announced for the definitive non nominative inscriptions.

The Executive Board ( BE) will study each situation and will decide the sanctions that will be applied.

1.4.3. The countries that have suffered financial damage caused by (partly) cancellation of other countries, must prove it to the BE with supporting documents.

It can be followed with a compensation by eventually turning against the country that caused the damage. In case of dispute the BE will decide.

Article 1.5. Qualifications

1.5.1. The participants have to fill in the conditions fixed by article 23 of the Statutes.

1.5.2. The participants are 15-17 years old boys and girls based on the year of birth.

1.5.3. The identity of the participants will be certified by the 'Bureau de Contrôle' at the accreditation based on the official identity card and a photo. The president of the CTI is responsible for the 'Bureau de Contrôle' and will be accompanied by one or more members of the Bureau and a representative of the COJFI. Each participant will receive an accreditation card with photo.

1.5.4. In case of a reclamation about the identity of one of the participants, the 'Bureau de Contrôle' will study the situation at the request of the OTI of the sport concerned.

1.5.5. Informations:

1.5.5.1 At the General Assembly the year before the Games the COJFI presents the general information about the organisation of the Games: dates, program, accommodations and restoration, sports venues, transport, other financial information as mentioned in article 1.4, ...

1.5.5.2. At least the 1st January the year of the Games the COJFI published a specific website with all information, linked with the FISEC-website.

The COJFI is responsible to add all actual information at that specific website.

The information about the participation, the program and the schedule for the competitions have to be validated by the president of the CTI.

1.5.6. Official FISEC documents

Documents send by the president (or secretary) of the CTI (see also article 3.5):

- document for the provisional inscriptions (response at the GA)
- document for the definitive non nominative inscriptions (response before the 15th February),
- document for the nominative inscriptions with choose of events for athletics and swimming (response the latest 30 days before the start of the Games).

2. ORGANISING COMMITTEE (COJFI)

Article 2.1. Organising committee

The organising country set up an organising committee (COJFI) who reports to the Executive Board and the CTI.

Article 2.2. Commissions in the COJFI

In general the following commissions are put in place:

- Finance commission
- Accommodation and catering commission
- Transport commission
- External relations and promotion commission
- Secretary and communication commission
- Pastoral / Pedagogic commission
- Sports technical commission
- Medical commission

The COJFI can decide to group or to split some commissions.

Article 2.3. Commission tasks

2.3.1. Tasks of the Finance Commission

2.3.1.1. Request a statement of the financial needs of each commission and report on the appropriateness of each of the proposed expenditures.

2.3.1.2. The organising country must follow the official participation fee agreed at the General Assembly before the Games. The participation fee must be paid in Euro.

2.3.1.3. The COJFI will control the assurances taken by the delegations:

- physical accident insurance : each participating delegation must sign a contract 'physical accident insurance' for each person of the delegation on the return journey, the stay and the competitions.
- civil liability insurance: each participating delegation must sign a contract 'civil liability insurance' who will cover the costs of damage caused by thirds parties.

The head of the delegation presents to the COJFI a copy of the insurance contracts at the 'Bureau de Contrôle'.

If the head of delegation can't present the contracts, he must sign a document relieving the organizer of any liability for damage suffered by a participant.

2.3.2. Tasks of the Accommodation and Catering Commission

2.3.2.1. Accommodation

2.3.2.1.1. The accommodation commission prepares the accreditation : a room near to the secretariat with enough space (at least 4 tables, 8 chairs, copier and enough office supplies). During the accreditation the delegations receive a plan from the accommodation site and a plan from the city with the different sports venues and the sites for the cultural program.

2.3.2.1.2. The first two days it is very helpfully to have 1 or 2 young volunteers for each delegation to guide the delegation to the different venues.

2.3.2.1.3. The accommodation has a good quality level, even the format with qualitative bungalow park is accepted. The proposed accommodation will be evaluated during the preliminary visit one year before the Games. The president of the CTI will report the evaluation at the GA the same year.

2.3.2.1.4. Preferable near to the accommodation the COJFI presents a nice open space ('Youth Village') were the youngsters can socialise in day or evening and were eventually can be organised a part of the cultural program.

2.3.2.1.5. The sleeping places for girls and boys are separated. The rooms are equipped with a bed for each person and enough space for the luggage. Sanitary ware and toilets are in the rooms or in the corridor (separated for girls and boys).

2.3.2.1.6. The coaches are sleeping in the same accommodation as the athletes (single or double rooms). The head of delegation receives a plan to indicate who is sleeping in which sleeping room, fulfills this document and presents it to the responsible of the accommodation commission.

2.3.2.1.7. During the Games the delegations have to assure the supervision of their youngsters, day and night. It is possible that the COJFI presents some special agreements concerning security or hospitality.

2.3.2.1.8. The national delegates, the members of the Executive Board, the presidents and secretaries of the CIRPP and the CTI and the OTI's are accommodated at a same site (hotel) in individual rooms.

2.3.2.1.9. Other persons out of the delegation (parents, ...) are looking themselves for accommodation.

2.3.2.2. Catering/Restoration

2.3.2.2.1. Three meals a day must be provided. The meals are adapted to the needs of young sportive people in competition, there has to be a good variation with mostly a choice for pasta.

2.3.2.2.2. The suggestions for the meals are presented during the preliminary visit.

2.3.2.2.3. Drinks have to be provided for the meals : coffee, tea, milk and water for breakfast and water for the lunch and the diner. Other drinks can be offered for a fee.

2.3.2.2.4. The time table for the meals is adapted to the time of the competitions.

2.3.3. Tasks of the Transport Commission

2.3.3.1. Transport is offered for a fee from the airport (railway station) to the accommodation and back. The agreements are made prior to the Games.

2.3.3.2. From the arrival of the delegations all transport of the participants and officials to the different sites has to be provided by the COJFI each day.

2.3.3.3. The transport commission prepares a clear time table each day for the different transports, communicated at the secretariat, in the daily bulletin and on website. Volunteers are integrated to guide the participants to the transport.

2.3.3.4. If public transport can be used, the delegations receive also a clear plan from the public transport.

2.3.4. Tasks of the External Relations and Promotion Commission

2.3.4.1. The ERP commission provides as much as possible publicity for the Games:

- website
- banners (to coordinate with the local authorities)
- posters (shops, schools, competition venues, local settings, ...)
- local (regional) written journals or magazines (announcements Games, results competitions, photos Youth Village and cultural program, ...)
- radio, regional TV, ....

2.3.4.2. In the interest of good contacts the commission provides official invitations for local, regional or national authorities to the competitions, the opening and closing ceremony and the official diner (eventually with an interpreter). The commission tries to agree with the Mayor that the city invites the national delegates and officials for a special reception in the city hall.

2.3.4.3. During the Games the COJFI invites for an official diner in addition to their authorities:

- the FISEC President
- the membres of the Executive Board
- the presidents and secretaries of CIRPP and CTI
- the OTI's
- the national delegate of each participating country
- the head of delegation of each participating country.

2.3.5. Tasks of the Secretary and Communication Commission

2.3.5.1. The COJFI provides a central and easy reachable place for the secretariat. At the secretariat all technical communication issues are available: telephone, internet, printer, copier, ... as various office materials.

2.3.5.2. The secretary and communication commission provides also one or two meeting rooms during the week. The first evening it is also necessary that the technical meetings sport by sport (OTI's + coaches) can take place. Therefore different meeting spaces + enough chairs are needed.

2.3.5.3. The commission prepares a Bulletin 0 one month before the Games and a daily information bulletin during the Games. Bulletin 0 will be handled in hard copy on the arrival day to each head of delegation and to the officials (Bureau + OTI's). All bulletins will be published on the website.

2.3.5.4. The commission provides a specific website for the Games with all important information. The information and the daily bulletins (with all results and classifications) are all communicated on the website. It is very important that all necessary information is communicated in time.

2.3.5.5. The commission prepares for each delegation and each official a list with the mobile numbers of the responsables of the different commissions and other important COJFI-members (name-function-mobile number).

2.3.5.6. The commission provides a presentation of the Games for the national delegates / heads of delegation, half part of the coaches and the FISEC officials the evening of the arrival day + a 'Welcome drink'.

2.3.5.7. The commission collects all press articles concerning the Games and offers a copy to the secretary of the FISEC Executive Board.

2.3.5.8. The commission provides a final bulletin with all results in pdf. The result bulletin will be published on the website.

2.3.5.9. The commission provides a certificate of participation. It will be sent digitally to the countries responsables.

2.3.6. Tasks of the Pastoral / Pedagogic Commission

2.3.6.1. The Pastoral / Pedagogic Commission works closely together with the FISEC CIRPP for several program parts in addition to the sports program (Games +):

- the opening ceremony with a short protocol part and a show part, about 1 hour;
- the 'Youth Village': a central and spacious place for friendly encounters the whole week, possibility to have free podium, or it can be also the central place for a cultural evening;
- cultural visit (minimum one half day visit);
- Eucharistic celebration ;
- the solidarity market ("Bazar") ;
- the 'Youth Forum' ;
- the closing ceremony with a short protocol part, the presentation of the fair play trophies and the team trophies for athletics + swimming, and a show party + disco.

2.3.6.2. The Pastoral / Pedagogic Commission chooses a suitable time for the Eucharistic celebration that everyone can be present and a place that can welcome all delegations. The commission prepares together with the CIRPP a youth friendly celebration with nice texts and music.

2.3.6.3. For the 'Youth Forum' 2 young participants from each delegation will go in discussion about an actual theme. The president and secretary of the CIRPP will guide the discussion and will report afterwards.

2.3.6.4. The commission is responsible for the preparations for the 'Bazar' : a nice open place, possibly in an public area or at the 'Youth Village', 2 tables for each delegation (eventually with a pavilion for each delegation).

2.3.6.5. The commission prepares the medal presentations. The COJFI is responsible to provide the medals and trophies. FISEC has to provide the Fair Play trophies.

The medal presentation for athletics and swimming is part by part (depending on the events) on the track or in the swimming pool:

- podium + sound system
- presentation of the medals on a cushion
- it would be nice to have each time 3 volunteers to bring the medals.

The medal and trophy presentation for team sports will be organised after the final match. It is preferable that all teams of the concerned competition are present, at least the 3 first teams:

- all the teams are sitting team by team in the sports hall
- the medal presentation will be done in front
- sound system.

The calendar of the medal presentations by the officials (+ local VIP's) is established under the responsibility of the CTI president.

The Fair Play trophies will be presented at the closing ceremony.

2.3.7. Tasks of the Sports Technical Commission

2.3.7.1. The Sports Technical Commission works closely together with the FISEC CTI.

2.3.7.2. The Commission is responsible for the good progress of the competitions, in accordance with the FISEC rules and the different FISEC 'Sports specifications'.

2.3.7.3. The Commission appoints a responsible person for each sport (an expert), appoints the referees (eventually with the help of young referees from FISEC member countries), the judges and the necessary officials. For the team sports the appointment of the referees for each match is by mutual agreement between the local sports responsible and the OTI.

2.3.7.4. The members of this commission work closely together with the OTI's, who are responsible to look for the exact application of the rules.

2.3.8. Tasks of the Medical Commission

2.3.8.1. The Medical Commission implements during the competitions a medical service at each sports venue. Everything has to be well prepared in case of serious injury to reach very fast a doctor and the possibility to go the hospital if needed. The help of a physiotherapist would be nice.

2.3.8.2. The Medical Commission takes necessary contacts to assure the medical assistance (Red Cross, Hospital, Civil Protection, Security). At the accommodation has to be a doctor available.

3. ORGANISATION OF THE COMPETITIONS

Article 3.1. Sports on the program

The competitions can be organised in individual sports or in team sports.

3.1.1. Individual Sports:

3.12.4. Flags

During the Opening Ceremony and the Closing Ceremony the FISEC-Flag and the flags of the participating countries are hoisted. The flags can be showed also in the competition venues.

4. VARIOUS

Article 4.1. Cultural program

4.1.1. It is recommended to create a 'youth village' near to the accommodation, to encourage meeting people.

4.1.2. The COJFI is organising a cultural visit (minimum one half day). The cultural visit is planned in function to the competitions.

4.1.3. One evening is dedicated to the BAZAR. For the Bazar all delegations have a stand and they are selling typical national products that the participants broad with them.

The financial incomes of the Bazar are offered to a charity project chosen by the COJFI.

4.1.4. A farewell evening has to be organised after the Closing Ceremony. The COJFI will perform a discrete control. A separate place nearby is provided for the adults.

Article 4.2. Sponsors

To guarantee the presence of FISEC-sponsors during the FISEC-Games, the 'Bureau Exécutif' presents a protocol of agreement to the COJFI. This protocol has to be signed by both parties.

Article 4.3. Evaluation

The national delegates (or heads of delegation) receive an evaluation document during the FISEC-Games and will be asked to complete this document and present their evaluation to the CTI president.

Article 4.4. Unforeseen cases

The cases, not foreseen in previous articles, will be studied by the FISEC-Staff and/or the OTI's, in a specific meeting. The decisions can be discussed together with the national delegates in the national delegations meeting during the FISEC-Games.

All modifications in the rules will be discussed in the commission meetings CIRPP and CTI and have to be approved at the General Assembly following next to the FISEC-Games that year.
