Article 2.

Each country may register any number of athletes.

2.1 Confirmation of taking part in races: each team leader must confirm participation of their athletes at least 45 mins before the beginning of the races of the day for each first round of races of the day.

Withdrawal with no medical reason before the start of a race at the beginning of the day, will lead to the athlete's complete elimination for every race in which he was meant to take part until the end of the competition.

2.2 Relays: each relay team taking part can have 6 names. If a country has two relay teams, the leader of the team will have to name, at least during the meeting before the games start, a team 1 and a team 2 with maximum 6 names each. One hour before the events start, final relay composition and race order will be given.

Article 3.

Each athlete may participate in four events + the mixed relay. The relay 4 x 100m is to be considered as an individual event.

- three track events and the relay 4 x 100 (+ mixed relay)
- three field events and one track event (+ mixed relay)
- three field events and the relay 4 x 100 (+ mixed relay)
- etc.

Article 4.

The athletics programme will take place in the morning or in the afternoon, days 2,3,4,5. On day 1, an official training session will be organised.

1 day training - 2 days competition - 1 day rest (recovery) - 1 day competition

Article 5.

In long jump, triple jump and throwing events each athlete will be allowed three trials and the best 8 competitors will be allowed 3 further trials.

Article 6.

In high jump, the starting height will be 1.30m for the girls and 1.50m for the boys.

Bar raising:

TEAM COMPETITION

Article 8

The Team Competition (nations classification) takes place with the same events as the individual championship. There is a team ranking male and a team ranking female.

Article 9 : Composition of teams

All countries participating with at least 5 athletes in FISEC Games athletic events are listed by the teams. All athletes of those countries may be participating in the team classification.

Article 10: Allocation of points

In each event, only the first classified athlete of a country brings points to the team. The points will be awarded as follows:

10.1 In field events and track events with direct final:

- the first athlete in each event will be awarded a number of points equivalent to number of participating countries,
- the second, one point less and so on.

10.2 In track events disputed with heats and final

- in each event concerned, the first athlete in final will be awarded a number of points to number of participating countries,
- the second, one point less and so on,
- athletes of the country not having taken part in the final will be classified according to the times carried out in heats, after the athletes classified in the final.

10.3 Withdrawal or disqualification will receive 0 points.

In the event of a tie, each athlete obtains the same number of points corresponding to the classification.

Example: classification and allocation of points for the female 100m during the FISEC games 2008 in Malta – 7 countries were participating in female athletics competition
